

USE CASE

Implement Lockpath with Strategic Partner Alliance Services

The Challenge:

Customers have many challenges to overcome when managing their integrated risk management programs. NAVEX Global's leading IRM software, Lockpath, helps organizations of all sizes become more resilient by bringing visibility to risks frequently managed in disparate sources. By having everything centralized, correlated and connected, the platform enables them to see dependencies and to make smarter business decisions. However, many customers require guidance and support that goes beyond the platform. They need comprehensive risk and compliance advisory services, including program assessments, process transformation, and managed services. They also struggle with balancing, maintaining and carrying out business processes while building and defining new improvements.

The Solution:

The Lockpath Partner Services program offers industry tested solution design and expertise that builds on the Lockpath Professional Services Team's platform knowledge. Together with our strategic partners, NAVEX Global provides holistic IRM programs specific to each customer's industry. By collaborating with our Lockpath-certified partners, you can efficiently implement your strategies in the platform and meet your risk and compliance objectives.

Assess your business needs and requirements and connect you with the best strategic partner resources to achieve your goals.

Collaborate with assigned strategic partner resources to provide and support expertly designed program strategies and solutions in Lockpath.

Provide risk management expertise and support throughout your relationship with Lockpath to help you expand and grow your program.
